

Presentatie

Dhr. Bart Dewaele, Directeur VVOB

	Project	BS
Direct benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +Rate of return +Visibility +Easy to measure +Attribution +Low risk 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Access to policy dialogue -Average rate of return on public sector spending -Low visibility -Difficult to measure -Contribution -High risk
Indirect benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Know-how transfer + Policy experiments - Weakened national priority setting and political ownership - Claim on future recurrent budgets - Public sector brain drain - Excessive transaction costs for public sector 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Strengthening of public sector functioning through TA, policy dialogue, conditions - Negative spillovers through enhanced Dutch disease effects

Source: adapted from Renard & Molenaers (2011)

Diverging preferences

	Project	BS
Direct benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +Rate of return +Visibility +Easy to measure +Attribution +Low risk 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Access to policy dialogue -Average rate of return on public sector spending -Low visibility -Difficult to measure -Contribution -High risk
Indirect benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Know-how transfer + Policy experiments - Weakened national priority setting and political ownership - Claim on future recurrent budgets - Public sector brain drain - Excessive transaction costs for public sector 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Strengthening of public sector functioning through TA, policy dialogue, conditions - Negative spillovers through enhanced Dutch disease effects

What Ministers of Development cooperation like and dislike:

Diverging preferences

	Project	BS
Direct benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +Rate of return +Visibility +Easy to measure +Attribution +Low risk 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Access to policy dialogue -Average rate of return on public sector spending -Low visibility -Difficult to measure -Contribution -High risk
Indirect benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Know-how transfer + Policy experiments - Weakened national priority setting and political ownership - Claim on future recurrent budgets - Public sector brain drain - Excessive transaction costs for public sector 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Strengthening of public sector functioning through TA, policy dialogue, conditions - Negative spillovers through enhanced Dutch disease effects

What Ministers of Development cooperation like and dislike:

Diverging preferences

	Project	BS
Direct benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +Rate of return +Visibility +Easy to measure +Attribution +Low risk 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Access to policy dialogue -Average rate of return on public sector spending -Low visibility -Difficult to measure -Contribution -High risk
Indirect benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Know-how transfer + Policy experiments - Weakened national priority setting and political ownership - Claim on future recurrent budgets - Public sector brain drain - Excessive transaction costs for public sector 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Strengthening of public sector functioning through TA, policy dialogue, conditions - Negative spillovers through enhanced Dutch disease effects

What Ministers of Development cooperation are less concerned about:

Diverging preferences

	Project	BS
Direct benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> +Rate of return +Visibility +Easy to measure +Attribution +Low risk 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Access to policy dialogue -Average rate of return on public sector spending -Low visibility = high visibility around the table of donors -Difficult to measure -Contribution -High risk
Indirect benefits & costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Know-how transfer + Policy experiments - Weakened national priority setting and political ownership - Claim on future recurrent budgets - Public sector brain drain - Excessive transaction costs for public sector 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Strengthening of public sector functioning through TA, policy dialogue, conditions - Negative spillovers through enhanced Dutch disease effects

What field staff in aid agencies like/are ok with and dislike: